RESOURCES Online Academic

VIRTUAL CALMING ROOM:

The Virtual Calming Room is a place for students & families to find tools & strategies to create a calming environement for academic success.

PARENT CENTER:

CNUSD Parent Center provides online resources such as tutoring, parent & student zoom workshops, parent video, food, medical, utility assistance resources, as well as, mental health services and spécial events.

CNUSD ONLINE LEARNING ENRICHMENT:

During the school closures, students & parents are able to continue their learning through the provided enrichment resources that are available here.

CNUSD PARTNERED WITH PBS:

CNUSD & PBS SoCal partnered to provide FREE educational resources to help families support learning during school closures. At-Home Learning PBS Packet.

WIDE OPEN SCHOOL:

This site helps make learning from home an experience that inspires kids, supports teachers, relieves families, & restores community. Wide Open School is a free collection of the best online learning experience from kids curated by the editors at Common Sense.

KHAN ACADEMY:

The site is a free resource featuring K-12 video tutorials, giving students access to video tutorials that explain the ins-and-outs of algebra, geometry, trigonometry, calculus, statistics, finance, physics, economics and more.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHICS:

Facts, photos, videos & more about countries around the world are provided.

CODE.ORG:

This site offers dozens of STEM-related videos and activities.

NASA STEM:

America's space agency provides educational media for different age groups.

MIT K-12:

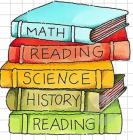

MIT is producing short videos teaching basic concepts in science & engineering for K-12 students.

TED ED: The maker of TED Talks provides carefully curated educational videos on topics ranging from literature & language, mathematics, science & technology.

YOUTUBE EDUCATION:

This collection of educational videos, created by YouTube, ranges from Sesame Street to Harvard.

Supplemental Academic RESOURCES

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTE

The Smithsonian provides a set of handy online resources across many disciplines, from art and design to science and technology.

- Budding scientists can access Nova Labs at PBS, for video, animation & games on scientific topics like predicting solar storms & constructing renewable energy systems.
- NASA's Teachable Moments, offers a range of activities and lessons for grades K-12.
- NASA's Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex has educational and fun Facebook videos where kids can learn from astronauts and other educators. Activities & instructions are available as free downloads.
- Make any room a classroom with BrainPop, where curious learners can take units in science, social studies, math, engineering and tech, and more.
- Iynker is offering free premium coding courses during school closures. Access your free eBook
- FunBrain offers hundreds of free games, books comics and videos for Pre-K through eighth grade.
- National Geographic Kids offers free online quizzes on topics ranging from animals to planets to sports and tood.
- Cool Math 4 Kids offers games and lessons to make math fun for kids. Math Game Time offers a variety of games, videos and worksheets for Pre-K through seventh grade.
- Inspired by Dr. Seuss, Seussville has activities, crafts, printables & recipes to engage your child.

VIRTUAL FIELD TRIPS:

- Google Arts & Culture has partnered with thousands of museums around the world to offer virtual tours from the comfort of your home. Here's the complete list.
- The San Diego Zoo offers 10 different webcams so animal lovers can keep up with a variety of their favorite creatures.
- The Monterey Bay Aquarium also offers 10 different webcams or families to experience underwater life from anywhere.
- WildEarth is an award winning, expert hosted LIVE safari, broadcast directly from the African wildness into your home. This show enables you to interaction with an expert game ranger in real time.

STORY TIME:

- Here's a list of podcasts featuring stories, meditation, music and more for ages 2 through 6.
- Celebrities are taking to social media to read children's books to little ones staying home during this time. The Los Angeles Times curated this roundup of these posts.
- Here's a list of authors doing read-alouds of their famous books, & books by their favorite authors.
- Storyline Online, the SAG-AFTRA Foundation's award-winning children's literacy website, streams videos of celebrities reading aloud children's books alongside creatively produced illustrations.
- Audible, which has the world's largest collection of audio books, is offering free stories in six different languages — for kids as long as schools are closed. Start listening here.

COLLEGE AND CAREER EXPLORATIONS:

- California colleges.edu (CCGI) is a platform providing students the opportunity to start planning for life after high school early.
- CampusTours builds video tours, photorealistic interactive campus maps, mobile walking tours. Visist 600+ college for free.
- Dirty Jobs Mike Rowe WORKS Foundation is on a mission to help close the skills gap by challenging stigmas & stereotypes that discourage people from pursuing millions of available jobs that can be successful.
 - Use CollegeBoard for testing informationg and college planning tools.

